SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1898.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Greatest Cut Of All.

Beginning today and until the 1st of September every Man's, Boy's and Child's Suit in our house will be sold

33% Less!

Than regular price. Not a Suit reserved. Goods purchased at the reduction must be paid for when taken out of the store. Money returned if goods not satisfactory upon home examination.

SHOES.

The results in our Shoe Department, though not a year old, are gratifying to us and fully as much to our shoe patrons. "The most comfortable pair of shoes I've worn for years." Is the universal expression of those that wear them. Our $2, $2.50 and $3 Smith & Stoughton French Calf Common Sense Shoes are the best in the market. Every pair we sell is made for us and warranted to give satisfaction. Money refunded if they don't. Our high-class Shoes, such as Vici Kid, Russian Calf, Patent Leather, Cordovan, &c., all of which are specially made for us by the Burt-Packard people, Brockton, Mass., fill the long felt wants in Maysville's shoe trade. We are daily receiving our fall stock in these lines. If your summer shoes are about worn out and you think it late to buy lightweight footwear we can fit you in the coming style of Fall Shoes. Respectfully,

THE THUNDER-MAN.

The Thunder-Man comes out when all the sky is black and cloudy.

An' growls away down in his throat instead o' sayin' "Howdy!"

An' sulks, an' hides behind the hill, an' snarls out streaks o' lightnin'.

An' does a lot o' other things that's very, very frightnin'.

An' when the wind starts in to blow an' rain begins a-pourin',

It's hard to hear a body think above his awful roarin'.

He swears like sixty in a voice o' rollin', pealin' thunder,

An' scares me till I go an' find a bed an' snug-gle under.

I stick my fingers in my ears an' lay there, hardly breathin',

For fear he'll catch an' eat me like some cannibal or beathen;

My heart keeps goin' thumpy-thump until the noise, dyin',

Somehow don't come no more, an' I fall fast asleep a-cryin'.

The Thunder-Man is big an' fierce, an' awful, too, you bet you;

An' you don't be mighty good some time he's sure to get you—

I'm good most all the time, but then it's safest to crawl under.

The bed whenever clouds come up an' it begins to thunder.

Portsmouth showed her enterprise last week when the business men raised nearly $70,000 to retain the Burgess Steel and Iron Works, which were contemplating a new location. Maysville could easily put up $100,000 for Uncle Sam's bonds, but you couldn't raise 47 cents to secure a factory employing 40 hands who would spend $400 a week, $1,600 a month, or over $30,000 a year with the merchants of the city.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better, by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. BOGGS, Stump-town, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by J. Jas.
